UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, vs. ERIC FRANKLIN ROSSER, Defendant.	No. 1:17-CR-2005-LRS-1 ORDER FOLLOWING INITIAL APPEARANCE ON SUPERVISED RELEASE PETITION

On Monday, July 03, 2017, the Defendant made his initial appearance for supervised release violations reported in a Petition dated June 19, 2017, (ECF No. 06, violation 01). The Defendant appeared with Assistant Federal Defender Rick Hoffman. Assistant United States Attorney Thomas Hanlon represented the United States.

Defendant was advised of, and acknowledged the alleged violation and the penalties he faces.

Defendant denied violating the conditions of his release.

Defendant was advised of, and acknowledged Defendant's rights.

The Office of the Federal Defenders was appointed to represent the Defendant for the purpose of the initial appearance only. It appears as though Defendant has sufficient financial resources to retain counsel. A status conference regarding the status of counsel was set before Judge Mary K. Dimke in Yakima, Washington, on Friday, July 14, 2017, at 10:00am.

A revocation hearing was set before Judge Lonny R. Suko in Yakima, Washington, on Thursday, July 27, 2017, at 10:30 AM.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Defendant shall be released on his previously imposed conditions of release, set forth in ECF Nos. 1-1, 4.

DATED this July 3, 2017.
